9 YEARS OF ADVENTURES

"Then all at once, the storm stopped. And there in front of Twinkle, beyond a veil of drifting snowflakes, appeared a bright, icy cove, and on the shore surrounding it was a gray, medieval city. The black roofs of the buildings were tall and jagged. The shore was lined with many sheds, salt storehouses, and grain silos. There was no one to be seen, and not a breath of wind stirred the air. It was as if Twinkle had slipped into the past." Quote from the book Icebreaker Snow and the Lost City

We are sharing our Arctic Adventures around the world!

Arctic region is getting more and more attention from people around the world. Our Icebreaker Snow arctic adventures started in the winter of 2011 and now it is time to share them to readers and publishers around the world.

Our book series has already been published in Finland, China, Vietnam, India, Indonesia and soon Russia. The Icebreaker Snow content is expanding rapidly. At this moment we are also developing 3D animated series with the famous studio - Anima Vitae, and a mobile game based on the book series. We already started licensing our products with POB's partners.

Icebreaker Snow book series is translated to English by award-winning Lola Rogers. All the six books in the Icebreaker Snow series is available in Adobe InDesign and ready for our translation rights partners. Part seven is coming soon!

Our vision is to continue developing many new adventures and to communicate Icebreaker Snow and other characters' values of positivity, helpfulness and kindness to all the children around the world. Let's join us to make this happens!

Teemu Leppälä is a Finnish author, sea captain, and marine pilot. He has worked on dozens of different ships and seen the world from the Suez Canal to the rivers of China, and from Greenland to Africa. In the winter of 2011 he was working as an Icebreaker operator and had just finished his night watch. The night had been full of important missions and tricky situations. It was on that night that Teemu decided to start writing stories for children about his icebreaker adventures.

ICEBREAKER Snow ADVENTURES

ICEBREAKER SNOW ADVENTURES 3D Animated Series!

Synopsis: Icebreaker Snow recently finished his highest level icebreaker training. Now Snow embarks on exiting and fun arctic adventures with his friends from their home port Juniper Point. Icebreaker Snow Adventures series goes into icy and arctic conditions where each character has their own colorful personality and they all are fighting to stop climate change. Surrounded by Arctic seas, foreign visiting ships and exciting missions offer fascinating stories with a warm heart and lots of courage.

"The Arctic day and night is always full of adventures and important rescue missions. The goal of our animated series is to entertain children while teaching them wonderful life lessons about the Arctic region, climate change, equality, friends, happiness, positive feelings and the need to care for each other. This series will give something new that has not been done before," said Teemu Leppälä, the CEO of POB Production.

"Icebreaker Snow Adventures is something extraordinary. It's been great to get to be doing the trailer and bring the awesome characters to life. The whole process has been a positive experience and we hope that this series will receive the necessary funding to complete as this is something that is really worth doing. It is great to be a part of such a unique story about Arctic adventures, and we believe it will spark a lot of interest worldwide," said Antti Haikala, the COO of Anima Vitae.

Anima Vitae has been nominated twice for the Best European Animation Producer, and they are best known for Moominvalley and 3D feature Niko and The Way to the Stars, which was sold to 118 countries.
